9am-12pm Beyond Traditional Applications of Motivational Interviewing with Hillary Bolter, LCSW, LCAS

Hillary Bolter, LCSW, LCAS is a clinical social worker with a thriving clinical and consulting practice in Asheville, NC. Hillary has been a member of the Motivational Interviewing Network of Trainers (MINT) since 2011 and delights in helping individuals, groups, and organizations learn the essential skills of Motivational Interviewing. In this training, Hillary will provide a refresh of MI and explore effective methods for helping your clients get unstuck, while helping you work less hard.

1pm-4pm Introduction to Acceptance and Commitment Therapy: Be Present, Show up, and Do What Matters with Brenda Bomgardner, LPC, BCC, ACS

Brenda M. Bomgardner, LPC, BCC, ACS is a therapist, coach, and clinical supervisor who brings the core principles of Acceptance and Commitment Therapy (ACT) out of the therapy room and into the world of private practice entrepreneurship as an evidence-based process for creating business success. In her private practice, Brenda has specialized in treating adult survivors of childhood trauma and her current interests include helping other clinicians move toward an integration of clinical and business skills. Her soon-to-be released book, 'Sweet Spot: Find Your Private Practice Groove with Principles from ACT' is her most recent project.
